Conditions and General Information Concerning the Contest

Any person—man or woman, married or single, girl or boy—residing in the territory in which The San Francisco "Chronicle" circulates is eligible to enter the contest.

The contest manager reserves the right to reject any nominations.

Vote certificates will be issued on new and renewal paid-in-advance subscriptions to The San Francisco "Chronicle."

A coupon will be published in The San Francisco "Chronicle," which, when neatly cut out, name filled in, and brought or mailed to the Contest Department within two weeks, will count as votes.

The first thing to do is to enter your name as a candidate. Then either call, write or phone to the Contest Department, Room 316, Chronicle Building, for a receipt book and blanks with which to secure subscriptions.

Then let all your friends know you are in the contest, and request them to save their votes for you.

Candidates may nominate themselves or may be nominated by their friends.

No employee or member of employee's family of The "Chronicle" can enter the contest.

All vote ballots issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the contest.

Votes are not transferable.

Votes will be allowed on subscriptions secured anywhere in the United States, Canada, Mexico, etc.

The votes will be counted and canvassed by a committee of prominent citizens, who will decide the winners and award the prizes.

In case of a tie the prize will be divided between the contestants tying.

Any questions which may arise will be settled by The "Chronicle," and its decisions will be absolute and final.

The Contest Manager reserves the right to alter the rules and regulations during the contest and add additional prizes.

In case of a typographical error, it is understood that The "Chronicle" shall not be held responsible, except to make the necessary correction on discovery of the same.

Winners of prizes who receive orders for merchandise on merchants must use the same within thirty days after the close of the contest, or the orders will become void and the "Chronicle" released from all obligations connected therewith.

Send In Your Nomination NOW

You will find a nomination blank printed on another page. The nomination blank is good for 5000 votes, which gives you a fine start. Then secure new and renewal paid-in-advance subscriptions. Enlist the aid of your friends and neighbors. Use your telephone. Let everyone know that you are a candidate before they promise their help to a more enterprising candidate.

Be ambitious and determined to win. If you have friends you cannot see at once, write them.

VOTE CERTIFICATES WILL BE ISSUED ON NEW AND RENEWAL PAID-IN-ADVANCE SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE SAN FRANCISCO "CHRONICLE."

Call or send to the Contest Department, Room 316, Chronicle Building, for a receipt book. The Contest Manager will be glad to have you call so that he can explain anything you do not understand. Telephone or write to him if you cannot call, and a representative will give you full details.

Secure every Daily Vote Coupon possible. But work for the votes issued for subscriptions. They count the most.

Ask Your Friends to Help You

If you belong to a church, society or any organization, let your fellow members know that you expect their help. It will be freely given if you only ask before it is given to some other candidate.

Don't forget that the children can do the most effective work in collecting Daily Coupons, as well as secure you many paid-in-advance subscriptions.

Should your father, brother, mother, sisters or friends belong to any organization, get them to secure the votes and assistance of the members of the organization.

Do not let a day pass without securing some subscriptions and votes. The steady, persistent work is what will make you the winner of a valuable prize. Keeping everlastingly at it always brings success.

Anyone, anywhere, can vote for any candidate. Candidates can secure votes and subscriptions anywhere.

It is easier to ask questions than to correct mistakes. Do not hesitate to ask questions. The Contest Manager is at Room 316, Chronicle Building, to help you.

TELEPHONE KEARNY 1041.
